BEHIND THE BARTON

Named after a cherished Hopper family name, The Barton reflects more than thoughtful design—it represents the family values that have shaped Hopper Communities from the very beginning.

Founded in 2007 by Bart Hopper, Hopper Communities was built on the belief that exceptional homes begin with exceptional locations, timeless design, and an unwavering commitment to quality. As a family-owned and operated homebuilder, every community and floor plan is thoughtfully crafted to create spaces where families and friends can gather and make lasting memories.

The Barton embodies that philosophy, blending purposeful design with the attention to detail and craftsmanship that define every Hopper Communities home. It's a floor plan inspired by family, created for yours.
